 died in this area, he has disposed of his interest in the Ambassador

Another former D.V.ite now living in Fort McMurray is Odd Sande. Odd is foreman for Carlson Construction, who are doing a lot of the building in that town.

Whenever we meet Odd we always find again of the get-up that he and Ken Polson were wearing as they rode a horse in the first rodeo parade. Deemed as Mexican caballeros they rode the old nag, barefoot and shouring a Mexican "Hoy every once in a while. Never did figure out how much trouble it took to lubricate them to that point.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Starling report a wonderful trip to their native Wales, and other parts of the U.K. They drove all over the little Isle. The Tower of London with its medieval towers and battlements and the Grand at Buckingham Palace particularly intrigued them. Both were born in Wales, and have many relatives still living in that part of the country. They travelled over and back by Canadian Lines

Scoop's NOTEBOOK

Old times of the district were added to hear the passing of Mr. Ann Bennett, who passed away in Edmonton on December 15th, with funeral services held in Edmonton December 11th.

Mr. Bennett came to this area in 1915 with a package of immigrants from the central part of Oklahoma. One hundred and twenty immigrants were on the special train, with eighteen carloads of stock leaving Oklahoma after having suffered nine straight dry years, with some in the co-country having disappeared from the kangaroo stage.

Among those who were immigrants to this country with that train were the Combs family of Rocky Rapids, and their three boys, and two daughters, most of the members of the immigrant train settled in the Rocky Rapids or Tomahawk area. The Bennett family came to Rocky Rapids and settled there. Having no family when they arrived in the early part of the winter of 1915 they came to Calgary and drove a number of miles with them through the snow to Rocky Rapids.
 One of the boys who "made the trip at that time says the "weather" hovered at the 40 to 50 below zero mark during the trip from the railroad to their new settlement.

Sam Steffen, who has been all over the country with his family in a motor home, and who arrived in Drayton Valley, returned recently to carry on a project for Martin in this area. He has disposed of his interest in the Ambassador Motel. Formerly a licensee with

Spirit of Christmas Rules In Community Celebrations

It's Christmas time! Every child's eyes and ears reflect the spirit of the season, as this community celebrates the joyous holiday.

The spirit of Christmas is seen in gaily decorated streets and homes, in homes aglow with light and festive with evergreens, in churches where the manger scene tells anew the wonderful old story of a holy babe who was born in Bethlehem nearly two thousand years ago.

The spirit of Christmas is heard, in bells ringing out from street corners to homes, in happy voices singing all the songs of the season, from old carols to the more modern, but at the same time joyful, anthems carols and oratorios.

The spirit of Christmas is felt, as last minute preparations for the big celebration are made. There are always, it seems, some packages still to be wrapped, some final trimmings to be put on the tree, some part of the Christmas pageant, or church program that needs just one more rehearsal, some extra touch to make the Christmas feast absolutely perfect.

In the midst of the hustle and bustle, the spirit of Christmas shines through in all its many meanings.

The spirit of Christmas means laughter and joy — best expressed, perhaps by the faces of children, eager and smiling as they wait for Santa, full of rosy cheeks and so very happy.

The spirit of Christmas means the spirit of the needy and unfortunate.

The spirit of Christmas means a warm renewal of family ties and close friendships, and an enjoyment of the season.

The spirit of Christmas means the special customs each family creates for itself, as well as the traditions gathered from the lore and legends of Christmas.

Naming The Day
As a holy day and a holiday, Christmas means both prayerful worship and festive merry-making. The holy meaning of the day is expressed in its name.

The Latin name for Christmas translates as the Feast or Birthday of Our Lord. The English Christmas means the Mass of Christ, a meaning which is closely paralleled by the Dutch "Kermis" or "Kerstmis".

The French "Noel" has several possible meanings — new birth, day or a "whet of joy." What ever the exact origin, there's no question that Noel now means Christmas.

How The Tree Grew
When the German prince, Albert, married Queen Victoria, he carried the custom of the Yule tree to England, and from there it spread by imitation and immigration to Canada and the United States.

The German origin is appropriate, since it was in Germany that the English missionary, St. Boniface, formerly a monk named Winfrid, first instituted the decorated tree, a tribute to the Christ Child, as a replacement for the sacrifices made to the oak, which was sacred to the pagan god, Odin.

When Caroling Began
With the joyful strains of "Silent Night," "The First Noel," and other beloved carols, today's carolers carry on a meaningful Christmas custom that originated centuries ago.

As early as the fourth century A.D., a musical poem was sung in honor of St. Basil and his victory in the fight for Christian-ity over the Byzantine emperor, Julian. In Greece, legends of St. Basil were later put to music and sung at Christmas and the New Year.

The first real Christmas carol, however, were probably sung in a spirit of kind-heartedness in the Italian mountain village of Greccio when St. Francis of Assisi created the first manger scene in 1223. He and his brethren led the villagers in singing hymns of praise to the Christ Child.

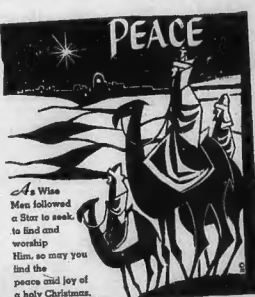

Source of Giving
Giving gifts at the Yuletide season has many precedents in the years before Christ, Romans gave crèches of straw, olive and myrtle to each other at the Saturnalia, a pagan festival that occurred about the same time as the present date of Christmas. In England and Northern Europe, Druid worshippers used gifts on trees during the Yule festival held at the winter solstice.

Roman emperors often devoted the night of Christmas to the fight for Christianity over the Byzantine emperor, Julian. In Greece, legends of St. Basil were later put to music and sung at Christmas and the New Year.

The first real Christmas carol, however, were probably sung in a spirit of kind-heartedness in the Italian mountain village of Greccio when St. Francis of Assisi created the first manger scene in 1223. He and his brethren led the villagers in singing hymns of praise to the Christ Child.

Bells Used For Centuries

Through the ages, bells have served many purposes - announcing the approach of visitors for instance, or signalling the beginning of curfew. Early associated with churches, by medieval times the pealing of the bells had come to signify the rejecting of the Christmas season.

An early custom was the tolling of church bells on Christmas Eve, during the hour before midnight. The tolling announced the death of Satan, and at midnight joyous peals told of the birth of Christ.

In England, where bell-ringing is an honored, family-taught art, the tuneful bells ring out at seven-thirty on Christmas morning.

It takes years of training and practice to learn the ringing of complex "changes," as the different chants and local combinations are called.

Festive Wreaths

Festive wreaths and garlands made of evergreens, holly and holly leaves, nowadays, are closely linked to the celebration of Christmas. The custom of making such garlands for gain occasions actually dates back to the ancient Egyptians, a thousand or more years before the birth of Christ.

REMEMBERS BETHLEHEM

"O Little Town of Bethlehem," a U.S. carol, was written by Episcopal Bishop Phillips Brooks in 1868, while he was rector of Holy Trinity Church in Philadelphia, Pa. On a trip to the Holy Land two years earlier, he had seen the "little town of Bethlehem" on Christmas Eve, and the vivid memory of this scene later led to the writing of the carol.

Christmas Tree Fire Safety Tips Millions of Canadian families in the next few days will be buying Christmas trees and decorating them for the holiday season.
Unless care is taken, this happy symbol of the holiday season can become a tragedy, warns the Canadian Underwriters' Association.

- These suggestions are offered by the C.U.A. to keep your Christmas tree fire-free:
1. When you buy a Christmas tree, choose one which appears fresh.
Before you buy the tree, rub your hand over the needles to make sure they are firmly attached. If needles fall when touched, the tree is dry and you should select another one.
 2. When you get the tree home, keep it outdoors until you are ready to decorate it. You can keep it fresh by standing it in a pan of water.
 3. You should wait until just before Christmas before setting up the tree.
 4. You should place the tree in the coolest part of the room, away from radiators, heaters and the fireplace. This will keep the tree from drying and reduce the chance of fire.
 5. Your Christmas tree stand should be of the type equipped with a water container in which the trunk can rest. Fresh trees will "drink" a sizeable amount of water, and you should fill the water container daily.

He's Santa By Any Name

The holiday gift giver — Santa Claus in Canada — has many different names around the world. In Russia, he may be known as "Father Frost" or "Father Winter". In Germany, children may hear of "Christkindl" or "Kris Kringle". Chinese children expect their stockings to be filled by the "Old Old Father" and Norwegian children anticipate gifts from an elf, "Jule Totten". French children await the arrival of "Père Noel". Hollanders look for "Sinter Niekas" or "Sinterklaas".

Now would be a good time to get even with some guy you don't like — send each of him a "deck the halls".

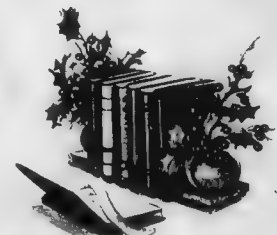

May it bring you PEACE, HAPPINESS and PROSPERITY

Christmas Tree Or Torch

by Guy Midgley, General Manager, National Safety League of Canada.

Every Christmas we hear of the tragic loss of life, injury and property damage through the lighting of a Christmas tree into a torch of destruction.

Since Christmas is not complete without some form of decorated tree, the National Safety League of Canada recommends special care in the selection of your tree and the precautions to be observed against fire hazards.

★ Cut a growing tree or purchase one which has not been allowed to dry out by prolonged storage.

★ Stand the tree in water or snow outdoors until ready to use it. Bring the tree indoors just before Christmas and remove it as soon as it has served its purpose.

★ The larger the tree, the greater the hazard, so do not set one larger than needed.

★ Support the tree well. Excellent stands are available which not only have water receptacles but broad sturdy bases with clamp anchorage.

★ Keep the tree from heat sources (fireplaces, radiators) or fire.

★ Place a freshly-cut tree trunk in water and keep the level of water above the cut throughout its entire indoor stay. Check the water level at least once a day for absorption and evaporation.

★ Do not use wax candles on the tree or nearby where the open flame can contact the tree or combustible material under it.

★ Use electric sets bearing the ULC (Underwriters' Laboratories of Canada) label. Be cautious with imported sets: some Christmas tree bulbs have shown imperfections which cause them to shatter, exposing the hot filament.

★ Check lighting sets each year for frayed wires, loose connections, and broken sockets.

★ Be sure the fuse of the electric drier serving the tree does not exceed 15 amperes. Cord sets with fuses in the plugs, bearing ULC labels, are available.

★ Make certain all tree lights are turned off before you retire or leave the house.

★ Do not let combustible Christmas wrappings accumulate in the home. Place them immediately in a metal-covered trash barrel or burn them in an incinerator.

★ Whenever possible, use noncombustible material (metal, glass, asbestos) to decorate the home for Christmas. When there is no alternative, be sure decorations are flame-proof, particularly if used near the tree.

★ Untreated cotton belling, polystyrene foam, paper and certain cloth containments will ignite easily and burn with great intensity unless flameproofed. Santa Claus' whiskers have caused Christmas tragedy, because they are flame proofed.

★ Do not set up electric trains, self-propelled toys or toys fueled with flammable liquids under a Christmas tree.

TIPS ON BUYING A CHRISTMAS TREE.

When choosing the best of the tree hard on the ground, needles should not shower down.

A finger rubbed across the tree stump should be sticky with resin.

Just Five Notes

TURN five notes—but oh, what a merry tune! It's "Single Bells" of course. Play notes on the piano or accordion as follows:

Oh! What fun it is to ride in a sleigh!

NATIONAL TREE

In 1928, the U.S. Department of the Interior officially designated a "National Christmas Tree"—a giant Sequoia located in King's Canyon National Park, California.

A conference evenness, the redwood trunk of the Sequoia rises 227 feet. It is estimated to be 4,000 years old, which means it was growing 2,000 years before the birth of Christ in Bethlehem.

DRAYTON VALLEY HIGHLIGHTS

BY EDITH DEBY

Friends were shocked by the sudden death of Mr. Fraser York on Tuesday of last week. Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. York in her sorrow.

Miss Rosa Wozniak was among the out-of-town guests who attended the Davies-Peters wedding. Miss Wozniak was the house guest of Mrs. Edith Dunlop.

Ill health has forced Steve Sencas to discontinue his studies at U.C. for this year. After several weeks of rest, Steve will begin work at the Treasury Branch in January.

The Wilsons of Violet Grove, are expecting their son, Charles home from Nova Scotia for the holiday. Charles is in the Navy.

An early resident of Drayton Valley, Mr. Aaron Berman, passed away in Edmonton last week. The Berman family lived on the farm where the Alfred Madson live now. They moved to Jasper Place last year.

Bells, Bells

Through the scruffy bells have stirred many purposes—announcing the approach of vehicles, for instance, or signaling the beginning of a service. Early associated with churches, by medieval times the ringing of the bells had come to signify the approach of the Christmas season.

As early custom was the tolling of church bells on Christmas Eve during the hour before midnight. The tolling announced the death of Jesus, and at midnight hymns were sung in the birth of Christ.

In England, where bell-ringing is an honored, family-kept art, the medieval bells ring out at seven-thirty on Christmas morning. It takes years of training and practice to learn the ringing of complex "changes," as the different chants and tones combinations are called.

Steven and Judith Kupferchmidt are planning a trip to Hungary and other European countries in the early spring. The Kupferchmidts escaped at the time of the Hungarian uprising. Now that they are Canadian citizens it will be safe for them to visit behind the Iron Curtain.

O COME ALL YE FAITHFUL

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye,
in Bethlehem;
Come and behold Him,
Born the King of angels;
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ, the Lord.
Sing, choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing all ye citizens of heav'n above
Glory to God, in the highest glory!

O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ, the Lord.

JOY TO THE WORLD
Joy to the world,
The Lord is come,
Let Earth receive her King
Let every heart
Prepare Him room
And Heaven and nature sing
And Heaven and nature sing
And Heaven and nature sing

For Kissing

Secular and religious Christmas customs met in the old English "kissing bush." This evergreen bush had made its way into the Christmas tradition for kissing, hence the name. But it also contained small bells to represent Jesus, Mary and Joseph, as well as an array of fruits and colorful ornaments.

WHAT ABOUT AFTER CHRISTMAS?

What happens the day after Christmas? Is the spirit of Christmas "spent" in lavish preparation and anticipation, enjoyed but briefly, then thrown aside with the wrapping paper and colored ribbons?

What happens the day after Christmas? Does one breathe a deep sigh and inwardly say, "I'm glad that it's over for another year?"

If this happens, then certainly we are not "keeping the Christmas." The Spirit of Christmas is superficial. Our Christmas symbols and ornaments, many of them puppets, their origin are only decorative trappings for creating a festive spirit.

It is Real. But Christmas is not superficial. Christmas is REAL. And so must observance of the holiday be REAL and not the mere matter of observing customs and practices as a matter of conformity. The glitter is gone from everywhere and holy wreaths on the day after Christmas. The tree suddenly becomes old and drops its needles upon the carpet. No longer does the bright figure of Santa adorn the mantle or fireplace; it simply hangs there, bereft of glamour and stirring little anticipation.

It Has Meaning. Unless we have "kept the Christmas" in preparation for, and observance of Christmas Day, then we have observed a meaningless holiday.

This year, let us keep the Christmas in a spirit that will keep the profound meaning of the holiday deep in our hearts for the remainder of the day after Christmas.

As we observe the Christmas, we must find time to meditate upon the great reality that upon this day Christ was born, bringing to all mankind the promise of eternal salvation. This is the message of Christmas and the secret to the successful keeping of Christmas for ever and ever.

His mission usually the same—but not his looks and his name—that's the Story of Santa around the world.

BOYS' JEANS

Police society may express dismay, but a boy's mother knows an ally when she sees it. What keeps the output of boys' jeans around $6 million a year is dependent mostly on their usefulness and durability throughout the ages.

Examined superficially in the store, all blue jeans may look pretty much alike. However, to get maximum wearability, there are some basic decisions to be made in shopping for jeans.

A Miss Nylon goes a long way. Boys of different shapes, ages and tastes finish off their jeans in different ways. There is the knee grinder, the seat slider and the pocket ripper. It has been found that a denim's resistance to tearing and bursting (under pressure of knees or bulging pockets) depends almost solely on fabric weight.

Resistance to abrasion also increases with fabric weight but it is further enhanced by the presence of nylon. A 13 to 14 oz. blend of cotton and nylon gives longest wear, followed in descending order by 13 to 14 oz. cotton, 10 to 11 oz. cotton-nylon, 10 to 11 oz. cotton, 10 to 11 oz. cotton-nylon, 10 to 11 oz. cotton, 10 to 11 oz. cotton-nylon.

This rule should be applied with reference to your possible desire for a cooler or more pliable "lighter" weight denim, especially for the small child. Look at the label for denim weight and fibre content. A shopper's guidelines.

A good pair of jeans should, in addition to satisfying fabric needs, have the following features:

A. Waitland. The top of the dress should be made up of a one-piece waistband of double fabric. The ends of the band, where it closes over the fly, should be folded back and stitched down, not merely flapped with overcast stitching.

FARM NEWS

Dear Sir:

It would be very much appreciated if you could publish in your newspaper the following news article.

Time is running out for tree applications. Your District Agricultural reports. Farmers intending to plant Christmas trees in 1965 must have their applications in by January 31, 1965. Orders for poplars and willows will be accepted until December 31, 1964.

Earlier in the year it appeared that neither poplar nor willow would be available from the nursery, hence no orders for those were taken. Persons having submitted applications, who want poplar or willow but did not order should inform the District Agriculturalist at Stony Plain and these will be added to their order.

Yours truly,
E.C. Lowe,
District Agriculturalist.

HOLIDAY CANDLES

Don't deny yourself a candlelight atmosphere at Christmas if such is your desire. Just remember that the candle represents a potential fire hazard. Never place lit candles near a Christmas tree, or in the window. Do not use them in any manner with decorations only in areas where someone will be able to watch them closely. Extinguish candles whenever you leave the room or the house.

Being silent might also be an asset if God did by some miracle

of speech have something word

you to say to us at Christmas

time.

Christmas is the time of year when symbols come into their own. Whenever one goes, he is faced with a litany of them

--holly wreaths, life-sized

Santa's, peering reindeer, blooming poinsettias, glittering timet, laden trees, parcels in beautiful wrappings. There seems no escaping the multitude of them that stare out from every window and every space advertising space in newspapers and magazines. Every year, the same "taken-for-granted" (or forgotten) meanings reach us.

Perhaps it's time we discarded some of the old stand-bys and initiated some new ones.

A good candidate for a new

Christmas symbol might be the

GIRAFFE. The ungainly galloper from Central Africa certainly has no monopoly on beauty. His neck looks as though he spent his younger days peering around a pillar at a basketball tournament.

He does have one faculty, however, that puts him far in the lead as a Christmas symbol: he is almost entirely voiceless.

While other animals and humans go trumpeting and blaring around their own particular images, the giraffe is mercifully

silent, a good listener if ever there was one. Quite a contrast, I think, to some of us who fill the air with the sound

of our own voices and mistake

that clamor for the sound of joy.

round their own particular im-

ages, the giraffe is mercifully

silent, a good listener if

ever there was one. Quite a

contrast, I think, to some of

us who fill the air with the sound

of our own voices and mistake

that clamor for the sound of joy.

Being silent might also be an asset if God did by some miracle

of speech have something word

you to say to us at Christmas

time.

Christmas is the time of year

THE ORIGIN OF THE CHRISTMAS CAROL

THE CHRISTMAS carols we love and sing today were composed by men of many lands and many creeds, and are the nearest approach on earth to one universal language. The same carols are sung in many different tongues and lands, from the frozen reaches of the far north to the steaming jungles of the South Pacific.

There is a similar broad reason in their origin. The music of some of these carols was written by Bach, Haydn, Handel and Mendelssohn.

For 20 years "Silent Night" was sung only in the Alps. Its journey around the world began when a group of children were invited to sing at the court of the king and queen of Saxony. "Silent Night" was introduced to America when a group of Tyrolean singers visited this country.

The one favorite carol of North American origin is "We Three Kings of Orient Are." It was written by John Henry Hopkins, an Anglican clergyman, in 1857, and is thought to have been originally composed for an amateur drama in the village church.

The origin of some of these Christmas carols cannot be traced. "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful" is clearly of Latin origin and is sung in various versions in all Latin countries today. This has been a favorite in all Portuguese chapels since 1751. It was probably sung in Rome many years earlier.

The origin of "The First Noel" also has never been clearly established. It is claimed by both England and France. While it was printed in England, most authorities are inclined to believe it originated in France.

Martin Luther wrote the words of "Away in a Manger" for his own children. Charles Wesley, brother of John Wesley, wrote "Hark the Herald Angels Sing." The melody was taken from a Mendelssohn cantata.

During the 16th century, in Bohemia, street singers used to appear on the streets in warm weather, as a hint that the generosity of the passer-by would be appreciated. Christmas carolers touring the streets are traditional in England even today, although they were once banned by Oliver Cromwell.

O Holy Night

O holy night! the stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of the dear Saviour's birth;
Long lay the world, in sin and error pining,
Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary soul rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn;
Fall on your knees, O hear the angel voices:
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!
O night, O holy night, O night divine!
Led by the light of faith serenely beaming,
With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand;
So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming
Here came the wise men from Orient land.
The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger,
In all our trials born to be our friend;
He knows our need, to our weakness no stranger,
Behold your King, before Him lowly bend!

Away In A Manger

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down His head,
The stars in the bright sky looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.
The cattle are lowing, the Baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus no crying He makes;
I love Thee, Lord Jesus, look down
From the sky,
And stay by my side until morning is nigh,
Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask Thee to stay,
Close by me for ever and love me, I pray;
Bless all the dear children in Thy tender care,
And fit us for heaven, to live with Thee there.

The First Noel

The first Noel the angels did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields
Where they lay;
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep—

Refrain

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel.
They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the east beyond them far,
And to earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.
And by the light of that same star
Three wise men came from country far;
To seek for a King was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went.
This star drew nigh to the northeast
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest,
And there it did both stop and stay
Right over the place where Jesus lay.
Then entered in those wise men three Full reverently upon their knee,
And offered there in His presence
Their gold and myrrh and frankincense.
Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heavenly Lord;
That hath made heaven and earth of nought,
And with His blood mankind hath bought.

O Little Town Of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie,
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.
For Christ is born of Mary,
And gather'd all about Her While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.
How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given,
So God imparts to human heart
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.
O Holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord, Emmanuel.

Silent Night

Silent night! Holy night!
All is calm, all is bright.
Round yon virgin mother and child,
Holy Infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.
Silent night! Holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight!
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing Alleluia,
Christ, the Saviour is born!
Christ, the Saviour is born!
Silent night! Holy night!
Son of God, love's pure light,
Radiant beams from Thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at Thy birth,
Jesus, Lord at Thy birth.

O Come, All Ye Faithful

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold Him,
Born the King of Angels:

Refrain

O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ, the Lord.

God of God,
Light of Light,
Lo, He abhors not the Virgin's womb,
Very God,
Begotten, not created,
Sing, choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above,
Glory to God
In the highest!
Yea, Lord, we hail Thee
Born this happy morning;
Jesus to Thee be glory given,
Word of the Father,
Now in flesh appearing.
